TOUCHING.
The gentle touch
Of a pair of lips;
The gentle touch
Of cool finger-tips;
The gentle touch
Of a falling leaf;
The gentle touch
Of a passing grief;
The touch of a joy;
The touch of pain;
The touch of wind.
Or the touch of rain;
The touch of time;
A touch of sin;
The touch of nature
That makes us kin!

Blankets and Comforts.

We've made a thorough study of values by comparison, and on blanket for blanket we find we can save you an average of $1 a pair. It's simply the result of unusual effort, and many years experience in blanket buying.
Measure the whole stock by these popular grades:

At $3½ pair. Selected white wool, finished like California blankets, medium weight, but warm.

At $5 pair. Staple white wool filling with just enough cotton warp to prevent shrinkage.

At $7½ pair. Big warm fleecy wool blankets of finest quality in warp and filling.

At $10 pair. Extra weight 7 pounds and extra size—81×90 inches. Warm enough for an Arctic expedition.

Cheaper blankets down to 75c.

Hunt's Special $ Counterpane, medium weight, good patterns, last back, hemmed ends, full bed size.

Comforts of all grades from $1 to $3½.
Our "Satisfaction" Comfort at $1½ is a trade winner.

Handsome Broadcloth Suits.

Four new models of these very dressy Suits, made of luster broadcloths and shadow stripes, all shadings.
Some are trimmed at neck and cuffs, others strictly tailored. All the skirts are extra full, with side plaits and folds. The coats are lined with guaranteed satins. A conservative price, under present market conditions, for these handsome Suits would be $35, so they are values of extraordinary merit for $25.

THAT dreadful sound like the swish of a thousand skirts and petticoats all combined may be Mrs. CARRIE NATION en route to Old Kentucky with fire in her eye and hatchet in hand. As a whisky trust buster Aunt CARRIE am the whole thing.

THE temperance people are fighting the whisky men, and now the whisky men are fighting among themselves. This seems to be the age of scraps. It's fight, fight, fight! So get busy and fight something or somebody. You may get licked, but somebody has got to get licked in every scrap.

As ELECTION time approaches a wholesale pardon exodus is expected from the Pen. It is no campaign lie to state that this is Governor BECKHAM's specialty. He has turned loose from the Pen over 2,000 criminals. One of the worst examples of the abuse of the pardoning power exercised by the Governor was the pardon of the Bracken murderer and rapist.

AND the Democratic Courier-Journal says—
"If disaster come, let those, whose want of conviction, want of integrity, want of courage and want of ability has brought it about, bear the consequences, not The Courier-Journal, which has done its best, and is doing its best, to hold up Democracy unterrified and undefiled, and to save the party and the state from the plotters and jobbers who have done so much to discredit both."

Regular services will be held at the Third Street Methodist Church tomorrow. Subjects of sermons: 10:30 a. m. "Kadesh—Barnea, the Borderline of Better Things." 7 p. m. "Watchman, What of the Night?" or Conditions as They Are in Maysville. Men specially invited to the evening service.

At the Washington theater last night a crowded house testified to the interest and merit of the show which kept the audience busy looking, laughing and wondering until nearly midnight. It was "amateur night," for one thing, but the feature of the evening was the escape of Latimore the wonder, from the heavy packing case made especially for the occasion by George T. Burrows, Paul P. Cullen, Leon P. Squires, Joseph Hechinger and Charles McNamara, employees of D. Hechinger & Co.'s clothing store. Latimore got in the box, was securely nailed up and roped tight and then the box placed in the cabinet. In exactly 13 minutes the man was out of the box. How he extricated himself remains a mystery. If you knew how it would appear the simplest thing in the world. See the show tonight.

TRAXEL'S

AN ILLUMINATING REPORT.

National Civic Federation Commission Shows the Impracticability of Some Municipal Ownership Theories.

An attempt has been made to belittle the full committee report of the National Civic Federation because it doesn't settle offhand the entire question of municipal ownership. Only those whose knowledge of the subject and of the personnel of the commission is most superficial expected any other result than the one which has been attained and which is, these critics to the contrary notwithstanding, of the greatest importance to those who are striving to solve this economic question on its merits rather than to get a snap decision favorable to their particular point of view. When it is considered that the eighteen men who united in this report represent the most divergent views on the question as a whole it becomes evident that any points upon which they concur after their thorough investigation of the subject must be considered as settled beyond ordinary question. It may not be amiss, therefore, to point out some of the more important of these conclusions with their bearings on the subject as ordinarily presented.

The American press, daily, weekly and monthly, has been filled with accounts of the successful operation of public utilities in Great Britain, and the writers have deduced therefrom the conclusion that similar results are readily obtainable in this country. This conclusion is entirely ruled out by the commission's report, which, while not committing itself on the question of the success or failure of British operation, asserts that the conditions of municipal government in the two countries are so different that it is not safe to assume that any success which may have been attained in England would be likely to follow in the United States.

Going further along the same line, the report indicates that the conditions, both physical and political, differ so widely in our own cities that comparisons between them are likely to lead investigators astray unless all points of difference are given their full value. Heretofore the simple argument has been: "Smithtown has made a success of its municipal plant. Why should not Jonesville?" This naive form of reasoning has won for municipal ownership the unthinking support of thousands whose mental training has not accustomed them to look beneath the surface. The report would be well worth while if it succeeded in convincing any considerable part of such people that the subject is far more complex than they had supposed.

Again, we are assured by the commission that prerequisites of successful municipal operation are an absolute divorce of politics from the management of the plants and the adoption of thoroughgoing business methods, a millennial condition of which there is no immediate prospect for most of our cities.

It has indeed been held that municipal reform would result immediately from an increase of municipal responsibility. The commission is unanimous in stating its belief that such a result is not to be hoped for, and its conclusion is borne out by the fact that at present the character of the officials of our various cities bears no apparent relation to the magnitude of municipal undertakings, except perhaps that as a general rule it may be said that the larger the field of operations the stronger is the grip of the boss and the greater the amount of graft. The commission sets aside this particular political theory with the statement, "We are unable to recommend municipal ownership as a political panacea." In other words, it concurs in the teachings of the parable of the talents that unfaithfulness in a few things doesn't indicate a likelihood of faithfulness in more important things.

Taken as a whole, the message of the commission to our cities is: "Go slowly. Don't be swept off your feet by demagogues or visionaries, for the risks are too serious to be lightly undertaken without full investigation."

ONE PET THEORY DOWNED.

Interest in Civic Matters Not Increased by Municipal Ownership.

Advocates of municipal ownership tell us that the ownership and management of public utilities by the municipality is invariably accompanied by greatly increased interest in municipal affairs by the rate payers. As has been pointed out in these columns on many occasions, this is one of the pet theories which, as a theory, is indisputable, but which in actual practice has proved time after time most disappointing.

Another instance has just come to hand. Edmonton is extensively advertised as the banner municipal ownership town of the Canadian west. Its civic officials have acquired much dexterity in throwing bouquets at one another and even at themselves. According to theory, public interest in municipal affairs in that town should always be at a white heat. But it is not.

The other day the 2,000 rate payers on the roll were invited to express their opinion upon bylaws adopted by the council involving the expenditure of the large sum, for Edmonton, of $250,000 for various municipal improvements. Of the 2,000 qualified voters 153 only, or one out of every twelve, found their way to the polls.—Editorial in Montreal Gazette.

The city council of Towanda, Pa., some months since appointed a committee to investigate the subject of municipal ownership with a view to the city's installing its own electric light plant. While the report of the committee has not been made public, its import can be judged from the fact that the contract for lights was promptly renewed.

Piles Are Caused
—by Some Physics

Physics—usually salts, tablets and pills—cause piles more often than any other one cause. Such remedies produce griping, which is the direct cause of piles.

A proper physic will not cause griping, but will produce an easy and satisfying bowel action.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

instead of weakening the intestinal organs, as nearly all other physics do, gives them such strength that they are able to voluntarily perform their functions. In cases of constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, weak stomach, and all other bowel and stomach disorders, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gives immediate and permanent relief.

All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Free sample bottle will be sent upon request to those who have never tried it.

Your money back if it doesn't benefit you.

South Trimble's Speech on the "Nigger"

PIKEVILLE, Ky., October 10th, 1907.—Judge James Breathitt, candidate for Attorney General on the Republican ticket, and Congressman South Trimble of the Seventh District, candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Democratic ticket, met in joint debate in the Courthouse this yesterday afternoon at this place. Judge Breathitt spoke first and made one of the most telling speeches that was ever delivered in Pike county. He presented facts and figures showing the mismanagement of the state affairs under the Democratic administration. This was far the best speech of the campaign in this section. On the subject of Sunday closing he propounded the question to Mr. Trimble, "if he endorsed Owen Tyler's course in Louisville advocating a repeal of the Sunday-closing law, and keeping saloons open on Sunday?" In response to this Mr. Trimble answered that he endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Tyler, and if he was in Louisville and an elector of said District, he would vote for him, that he believed in voting the Democratic ticket "straight" regardless of what they stood for. After Mr. Breathitt closed his talk, Mr. Trimble arose in an excited manner and made one of the most abusive speeches, if it could be called a speech, ever delivered in this section. He did not touch upon facts or any issue in the campaign, at all, but took his text on the "Murder of William Goebel, and the Negro." After exhausting all of his vocabulary, which seemed to be limited in so far as his delivering a speech was concerned, he turned loose on the poor old Negro and spoke in part as follows:

"White Republicans are all right, but the 'sore spot' with me against them is the Negro question. They advocate the rights of seventy-five thousand Negroes in Kentucky who are the meanest, blackest, slimiest of the earth, who ought to be disfranchised. I must say that Ham made a mistake in allowing them to go into the ark so that there would be one of the black scoundrels treading the face of the earth, and it is a great pity at the close of the war that fire was not touched to every Negro tent in the South. They are, you might say, the scrapings of the devil. They are the most fiendish, hellish set on earth. The Democratic party in the South with shooting guns have helped to relieve the Nation of a great many of these black beasts of the field. I am acquainted with sections in this state where the Negroes are so thick that if you rent a Court-room to make a speech in, that you would have to burn asafetida and carbolic acid to kill the smell."

His speech was disgusting both to Democrats and Republicans, except a few Democratic partisans who applauded his speech, especially regarding the Negro. In reply Judge Breathitt handled him without gloves, and by responding to him on the only two questions on which his speech dwelt. Judge Breathitt made a wonderful impression here, and by all who heard it his speech was pronounced one of the best of the campaign. Such speeches as Trimble made here today will only tend to increase the Republican majority in Pike county.

A LASTING EFFECT.

This Evidence Should Prove Every Claim Made for Doan's Kidney Pills in Mayeville.

Relief from the pains and aches of a bad back is always welcome to every backache sufferer; but to cure a lame, weak or aching back is what's wanted. Cure it so it will stay cured. It can be done. Here's the strongest evidence to prove it:

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cablish's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Mayeville, Ky., says:

"As I stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
